

Development and Access to Information

2017

The International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA) and the UN Dag Hammarskjöld Library (DHL) cordially invite you to a fireside chat with the theme:

2030 Vision: How Libraries Support the UN's Work on Sustainable Development

Thursday 13 July 2017, 1:30 - 2:30 pm (EDT)

UN Dag Hammarskjöld Library, Reading Room, 2nd floor (Room L-0248), United Nations Headquarters, New York.

Can libraries play a role in jump-starting and ensuring success for sustainable development initiatives and projects? Can they support individual citizens, community institutions, and businesses improve livelihoods and quality of life? Can they be partners with government in implementing the UN 2030 Agenda?

Hear from library and development experts how equitable, inclusive and meaningful access to information drives human progress, and join the conversation!

The event is open to all. Those without UN Grounds Passes are kindly requested to RSVP to: Ramona Kohrs (kohrs@un.org) by Wednesday 12 July 2017, noon EDT.
