You are invited to attend a special all-day session (Session 088) at the forthcoming IFLA World Library and Information Congress 2017:

“Collections and Books [A]cross Borders”

The session is open to all (no conference fee). Due to limited space, please register by 15 August 2017 here: <https://iflarbscs.konfeo.com>

Date and Time: Monday, 21 August 2017 / 8.30-17.15

Venue: Wrocław University Library (Biblioteka Uniwersytecka we Wrocławiu)

Address: ul. F. Joliot-Curie 12, 50-383 Wrocław, Poland (see map below)

This all-day session explores historical and current practices for managing and providing access to collections that have crossed borders using case studies from around the world. A closing panel will discuss a set of draft guidelines for libraries to consider when acquiring and managing “non-patrimonial” books and collections. Group discussion will be encouraged throughout the day.

Presented by the Rare Books and Special Collections Section jointly with the Indigenous Matters Section. Program chairs: Claudia Fabian and David Farneth
